683 CASTIGLIONE IL CORTEGIANO, elegantly bound in olive morocco, with morocco lining by Lewis - Aldo, 1545

"This book formerly belonged to Francesco Melchiori of Venice, who has made it a depository for some curious papers, consisting of copies of verses in manuscript by different members of the family. At the end is a Sonnet addressed to Tasso, on the publication of Camilli's Continuation of the Gierusalemme, by Francesco Melchiori, with TASSO'S SONNET IN REPLY, in his own hand-writing. At the beginning of the volume is preserved, what may be considered one of the most curious single printed leaves in existence, THE PRINTED CHALLENGE WHICH WAS CIRCULATED AND STUCK ON THE CHURCH DOORS IN VENICE, BY THE CELEBRATED ADMIRABLE CRICHTON, in the year 1580. This document not only proves the existence of this extraordinary man, but shews that what had hitherto been considered Sir Thomas Urquhart's Rhodomontade account of him was no exaggeration of his pretensions. It is printed in the large italic type used by Aldus Manutius, and most probably printed by him, as his friendship for Crichton is well known. This volume formerly belonged to the family of Orford." (Note by Mr. Evans.) It afterwards became the property of Mr. Singer, and subsequently of Mr. Hibbert, Mr. Hanrott, and Mr. Heber, at whose sale it was purchased.

These volumes are among the rarest of the Aldine Series. In Mr. Hibbert's Catalogue, at whose Sale this was purchased, it is stated that the first part does not contain the date at the end. The Bishop in his Note states that he believes that the last leaf is wanting, which Renouard mentions in the Annales, Supplement, p. 490.

Since these notes were written the Bishop has procured the last leaves of the volume with the exception of fol. 345, xx. 1. The last leaf with the date of 1558 is fol. 347.

1412 Missale aut Breviarium Romanum cum Calendario in Lingua Slavonica seu Dalmatica, 2 vol.

Apud filios Gio. Francisci Turresani Venetiis Mense Martio, MDLXI.

This is a work of very great value in an Aldine Series. It is beautifully printed in red and black characters and the Colophon and date are in the second volume, with the printer's device on the reverse, followed by 31 leaves.

It has not been correctly described by any Bibliographer, and is without doubt, the work alluded to in the following description by Renouard, Annales, 2d Edition, vol. 2, p. 13, (3d Edition, p. 181). Liber Precum. Venetiis apud Filios Gio. Francisci Turresani, 1561.

" Ce livre mal annoncé dans la Serie, edition de 1803 l'est beaucoup plus exactement dans Bibliotheca Duboisiana, No. 5504, on y lit. " Liber (forte Breviarium aut Missale Mozarabum) litteris rubronigris eleganter impressum, Venet. &c. En tete du volume etoit cette note manuscrite. " Langue mozarabe ou muzarabe, dont il y a une eglise a Toledo en Espagne, &c." Ce volume nous fait connoitre que Francois d'Asola ou Turrisan se nommait aussi Jean, et c'est, je crois, le seul document qui donne cette connoissance."

It was very unlikely that a work on the Mozarabic Service, only used in one Church in Spain, should have been printed for the use of the Churches of Dalmatia and Sclavonia, and all the copies were probably sent thither, which will account for its EXCESSIVE RARITY. — Heber Catalogue, Part I. No. 4524.

In the Supplement to the 3d Edition of Annales, p. 490 M. Renouard adds, after copying the Title and description of the Volume.

" André avoit imprimé des livres de prières en langue Illyrienne et probablement en divers dialectes Esclavons; il est tout simple que ses petits-fils ne soient pas restés tout-a-fait étrangers à ce genre de fabrication. Tres probablement ils ne s'en seront pas tenus à ce seul livre : mais le tout, emporté au loin, sans qu'il y ait eu besoin d'en laisser à Venise, se sera éparpillé ou detruit par l'usage.

1839 POLIPHILI HYPNEROTOMACHIA. FIRST EDITION. VENETIIS, ALDUS, MCCCCLXXXXIX. PRINTED UPON VELLUM. In red morocco, from the La Valliere, Gaignat, Mac Carthy and Hibbert Collections. The last leaf containing the errata and date is supplied by an admirable Fac-simile reprint upon vellum. This leaf is also supplied in the same manner in Count Mejan's copy (now in the Royal library at Munich.) The third copy is in the possession of the Duke of Devonshire, it was formerly in the Pinelli library, and is said to have belonged to Grolier. Renouard is in error, in describing the Pinelli and Grolier copy as two separate copies, and Van Praet has followed Renouard's statement. THESE ARE THE ONLY COPIES KNOWN.

A splendid specimen of Printing. The wood-cuts are quite brilliant upon the vellum.

is in Lord Spencer's Library, to be complete. Some cause or other appears to have prevented the completion of the letter press, which will account for the great rarity of this little book." Bp. Butler's Note.

1957 VERGILIUS. (Contrefaction, No. 1, Annales, p. 305. LUGDUNI, S. A.)

EXTREMELY RARE, a most beautiful copy, from Renouard's collection, in blue morocco. "Ce volume, le premier qui ait eté imprimé en italique hors de l'Imprimerie d'Alde, n'est peut-etre pas MOINS RARE que le Virgile de 1501, dont il est la contrefaction. Ces deux Virgiles etant presque également rares, et chacun d'eux le plus precieux volume de ces collections, in 8vo., ils figurent tres bien l'un a coté de l'autre dans le cabinet le mieux choisi."

It is certainly much rarer than the original.

1958 VERGILIUS. The Second Aldine Edition, EXTREMELY RARE, MUCH RARER THAN THE FIRST. This very fine

copy was M. Renouard's, and was an acquisition which he much valued, it having been obtained for him by his Son in 1818. See his Catalogue, vol. II, p. 236. Blue morocco, - - Aldus, 1505

1959 VERGILIUS. (Contrefaction, No. 35, Annales, p. 310-311.) (Lugduni,) 159, (sic.)

OF EXTREME RARITY. "Only one other copy of this extremely rare book, the Lyonese counterfeit of the Aldine Virgil of 1505 is known—it is in the possession of M. Renouard." This note of the Bishop's was correct when written, but M. Renouard mentions a copy in the possession of Lord Spencer, wanting the Priapeia. Renouard's copy is now in the possession of Mr. Holford.

1960 Virgilius. The first edition of this year, wanting the Errata. Red morocco, - Aldus, 1514

1961 Virgilius. The Second Edition, with the date of 1514, which is decidedly a false date. The open-mouthed Dolphin, which is under the date was not used previously to 1519. This is the rarer and more correct edition: see Annales, p. 69. Blue morocco. From Sir M. Sykes's Sale, - - - Aldus, 1514

1962 VIRGILIUS. LARGE PAPER, - ALDUS, 1514

EXTREMELY RARE. Very fine copy, in blue morocco, from M. Renouard's Collection; mentioned in the Annales p. 69. It is the second and correct Edition of this date. This copy is particularly interesting, from having formerly belonged to TASSO, who has filled the two blank leaves between the date and the Anchor with extracts from Ariosto. Mr. Renouard, not aware whose notes were in the volume, unfortunately had it washed when rebound, and a few marginal notes have been effaced, but not so carefully but that they may be seen, and the loss of them regretted.

Venetiis, Per Joan. Antonium de Nicolinis à Sabio: Sumptibus Federici Turresani ab Asula, 1539

OF THE GREATEST RARITY. THE ONLY COPY KNOWN. Renouard describes this volume in his third edition, p. 118, but concludes thus, "Je n'ai pas vu CE TRÈS RARE VOLUME." The Bishop's note is as follows. "This rare and unknown edition contains 312 leaves numbered and 20 (8 at the beginning and 12 at the end) unnumbered. The numbers from 185 to 192 both inclusive are repeated, (with a star added). It is however imperfect. From the last leaf of Signature N. to the last leaf but one of Signature P both inclusive, are wanting. These leaves 288-303 no doubt contained the Priapeia, which some scrupulous possessor tore out, and which indeed are not mentioned in the Title-page." Very fine copy, green morocco.
